Henry bent over to tie his three-year-old son's shoes. The little boy stared at the top of his dad's head, gently touched the bald spot and said in a concerned voice, "Daddy, you have a hole in your head. Does it hurt?" After a pause, Henry murmured, "Not physically."

*A farmer was in the barn milking the cow.
A bug flew into the barn and started circling his head. The farmer waved his hand to shoo the bug away.
He saw the bug fly into the cow's ear.
The farmer didn't think much about it and continued milking. After a while, the bug squirted out into his bucket!
Yup, you guessed it; it went in one ear
and out the udder!*

Driving to work, a gentleman had to swerve
 to avoid hitting a box that fell out of a truck in front of him.

Seconds later, two policemen came by.

While one pulled the gentleman over,
 the second carefully stopped traffic and recovered the box so as to avoid any further mishaps. When they opened the box, they found it contained large upholstery tacks.
 "I'm sorry sir," the first trooper told the driver,
 "but I'm going to have to write you a ticket."
 Amazed, the driver asked, "For what??"
 The trooper replied, "Tacks evasion."
